This project is a partnership with Summit Community Care but is available to all individuals served by a pilot provider organization, regardless of payer or PASSE.

THE PROVIDER FOCUS PROJECT

ARKANSAS PROVIDER
CRISIS CAPACITY BUILDING

The Provider Focus Project is designed to assist a pilot group of providers who serve individuals with an IDD diagnosis that experience a behavioral health or psychiatric crisis. Licensed, clinical staff are available for training, consultation, and real-time crisis support.

THE MISSION OF BENCHMARK
IS TO HELP THOSE IT SERVES
LIVE AS INDEPENDENTLY AS POSSIBLE, BE INCLUDED IN
THE COMMUNITY, AND REACH
THEIR MAXIMUM POTENTIAL.

PROVIDER CAPACITY BUILDING MODEL

- In-person, virtual, and web-based training and coaching, customized to the organization
- Consultation and recommendations in-person and via telehealth
- Identification of behavioral support staff who can be developed into RBT and BCBA
- Shared clinical support/monitoring individuals at risk

TARGETED OUTCOMES

- Increased potential for the persons served to enjoy sustained healthy lives in the community
- Reduction in costs related to supplemental staffing, critical incidents or employee injuries
- Diversion from emergency department or encounters with law enforcement
- Prevention of future crises and reduced recidivism
- Fewer disruptions in placement
